JACCESS: TRAINING AND SUPPORT

BUILDING INCLUSIVE COMMUNITIES

Accessibility in Action

JAccess Training Initiative

Jewish Federation
of Greater Atlanta

CREATING A STRONGER JEWISH COMMUNITY

JAccess Training Initiative

Jewish Federation
of Greater Atlanta

Building an Inclusive Jewish Atlanta

Together, we can create a stronger, more accessible Jewish community where everyone belongs.

What We Offer

Our initiative provides accessible and inclusive training for Jewish organizations across Atlanta — helping foster a culture of belonging in Jewish life.

Training Topics

Disability 101
How to Lift Disabled Voices
Accessible Operations
Event Accessibility
Digital Accessibility
Universal Design
Summer Camp Training
Inclusive Programming
...and more!

Why Participate?

Recognize Progress & Set Goals

Reflect on accessibility successes and set goals for improvement.

Spark Curiosity & New Thinking

Learn current best practices and foster continuous learning.

Customizable & Experiential

Tailored content from a trainer with lived experience.

JAccess Training Initiative

Jewish Federation
of Greater Atlanta

What Sets Us Apart

Led by Lindsey Flax, a Jewish Atlanta native with a disability.

JAccess offers training for:

- Early childhood staff
- Teens & college students
- Professionals
- Board members & volunteers

Training developed by Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta — accessible to everyone.

Cost

FREE — JAccess covers all training costs.

Meet Lindsey

Lindsey Flax is a seasoned disability advocate with experience at:

- John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts
- Full Radius Dance
- The Smithsonian Institution
- Georgia State University's Center for Leadership in Disability

A graduate of Beacon College (Psychology & Studio Art), Lindsey is dedicated to building creative, connected, and accessible communities where people with disabilities can thrive

Ready to Learn More?

Contact lflax@jewishatlanta.org

Let's build a more inclusive Jewish community — together!