JEWISH ATLANTA
thriving & growing

Did you know?
Atlanta's first synagogue was constructed in 1880 when the Jewish population was 600. We are now home to 120,000+ Jews and growing, with over 40 congregations - some of which couldn't even fit on this map.

Did you know?
Jewish Atlanta has over 100 organizations offering opportunities for Jewish learning and engagement, ranging from traditional to cutting-edge models.

Did you know?
There are over 300 opportunities a year to experience Jewish books, movies and music through our community-wide festivals.

Did you know?
There are over 40 social service programs available to individuals and families in need to increase quality of life and support our community through good and hard times alike.
