CARING FOR THOSE IN NEED

WHY WE CAN'T WAIT

The need across our community is growing faster than available resources. While Federation helps ensure support reaches those who need it most, significant gaps remain.

GAPS & UNMET NEEDS

- More individuals and families are seeking emergency assistance for food, housing, and basic needs than current resources can support.
- The need for Jewish fertility support continues to grow, as rising treatment costs put care out of reach for more families.
- More community members are seeking disability inclusion, accessibility, and health support services than existing programs can accommodate.
- Demand for mental health care, senior support, and crisis assistance continues to outpace available funding.

YOUR GIFT

- Helps Jewish families facing food and housing insecurity.
- Supports community members seeking mental health support and healing.
- Provides older adults the opportunity to age with dignity and offer a connection to Jewish life.

“It was isolating. If you haven’t gone through infertility, you don’t fully understand it. The support we received helped us feel less alone and gave us hope as we pursued our dream of becoming parents.” -Allison Mehlman, Atlanta Mom

JEWISH EDUCATION

WHY WE CAN'T WAIT

Jewish education helps children build a strong foundation of Jewish knowledge, values, and identity while fostering lifelong connections to Jewish life and community. As the cost of Jewish schools, camps, and educational experiences continues to rise, more families are struggling to access these transformative opportunities.

GAPS & UNMET NEEDS

- The rising costs of Jewish education is preventing children in Atlanta from accessing Jewish schools, and other meaningful educational experiences.
- Demand for scholarships and financial assistance continues to outpace available funding.

YOUR GIFT

- Connects children and teens to a strong Jewish identity.
- Develops and inspires the next generation of Jewish educators.
- Strengthens children's Jewish knowledge and understanding.

ISRAEL & JEWS WORLDWIDE

WHY WE CAN'T WAIT

The Jewish people are deeply connected, and when one community faces crisis, we all feel the impact. As Israel continues to recover from the aftermath of October 7, Jewish communities worldwide confront rising antisemitism. Therefore, humanitarian needs, trauma recovery, and opportunities to strengthen global Jewish connections have never been more important.

GAPS & UNMET NEEDS

- Jewish communities around the world continue to face poverty, crisis, and instability, creating ongoing demand for humanitarian assistance and community support.
- The need for trauma recovery, resilience-building, and emergency assistance in Israel remains significant as individuals and communities continue to heal and rebuild.
- More people across Jewish Atlanta are seeking meaningful opportunities to connect with Israel and the global Jewish community as rising antisemitism strengthens the need for shared identity and belonging.

JEWISH ENGAGEMENT

WHY WE CAN'T WAIT

People are seeking more ways to connect with Jewish life, build lasting relationships, and find a sense of belonging. Meeting this growing demand requires expanding opportunities that bring Jewish Atlanta together and ensure everyone has a place in our community.

GAPS & UNMET NEEDS

- More individuals and families are seeking meaningful opportunities to connect with Jewish life and community.
- Rising costs are creating barriers to expanding engagement opportunities across Atlanta.
- Demand for programs that foster belonging, leadership development, and community connection continues to outpace available resources.

YOUR GIFT

- Ensures that cost is never a barrier to Jewish experiences.
- Provides programs and spaces for children and teens to create strong Jewish identities.
- Develops the next generation of Jewish leaders.
- Provides lifelong connections to Jewish community.

“When I became pregnant, I joined JBaby, Federation’s initiative for new parents, and it was one of the most amazing experiences. I learned so much, and now I have all of these friends, and my daughter will grow up with their children too. Federation had such a huge part in the early days of our child’s life, and that connection naturally led us deeper into the Jewish community, from the JCC to Jewish daycare and planning for camp and Jewish education.” -Luisa Kaplan, PJ Library and JBaby Parent

SAFETY & SECURITY

WHY WE CAN'T WAIT

Rising antisemitism and growing security threats continue to challenge Jewish communities across the country. No family should have to wonder whether their child is safe at school, and no congregant should have to think twice before walking through the doors of their synagogue. Protecting Jewish life requires ongoing investment in security, preparedness, and community-wide resilience.

GAPS & UNMET NEEDS

- Jewish institutions across Atlanta face rising security, preparedness, and infrastructure costs as threats against Jewish communities continue to increase.
- The need for coordinated training, emergency planning, and community-wide response capabilities continues to grow.

YOUR GIFT

- Increases the safety of Jewish schools, synagogues, camps, and our community.
- Enables threat responses before escalations.
- Provides our community with leading security and law enforcement experts.
- Secures our Jewish future.

"I could be a security guard anywhere, but I choose to be here because of the community. Families deserve to feel safe sending their children to school and coming together to worship, and through Federation-supported security, we help make that possible every single day." -Steven Anderson, Security Guard
