

Atlanta Letter to Senators Ossoff, Warnock On Their Vote to Block Arms Sales to Israel

As your constituents, we are deeply disappointed by your support of Sen. Sanders' efforts to block weapons transfers to Israel.

Your vote demonstrates that your commitment to Israel's security is not ironclad; rather it comes at the expense of Israeli defense. It not only emboldens Iran and its proxies, it also stands in sharp contrast to the many expressions of support for Israel you have made.

Your vote does nothing to return Israel's displaced persons from the north and the south, secure the release of the hostages, nor protect innocent Israeli or Palestinian lives. It provides cover for those who seek to harm the Jews around the world and further fuels the increase in antisemitism that has been surging in our communities and on college campuses.

We all want this war to end. Limiting Israel's ability to vanquish enemies that seek not only its defeat but destruction will prevent that from happening.

The U.S. has been a steadfast supporter of Israel from the moment it was founded in 1948. Now is not the time to retreat from that commitment.
