Checklist for grantmakers

Please look over your grant process thoroughly, covering program creation, promotion, application guidelines, panel recruitment, and award decision-making, before proceeding with any other actions.

- ❑ Are people with disabilities part of these processes?
- ❑ Did you make social media posts accessible for announcing grants?
- ❑ Did you reach out to disability organizations?
- ❑ Is the grant application process accessible?
- ❑ Are people with disabilities included in your targeting of diverse groups?
- ❑ Do you offer grants specifically for people with disabilities or disability-oriented organizations?
- ❑ Do applicants need to outline how they'll make projects accessible to people with disabilities?
- ❑ Do you include people with disabilities in lists of potential target audiences for funded projects?
