

ATLANTA

JEWISH COMMUNITY PROFESSIONAL DAY SCHOOL TUITION GRANT

AN EXCITING OPPORTUNITY!

Jewish community professionals working at eligible Jewish non-profits in Atlanta may receive up to 50% off tuition at a participating Jewish day school — Atlanta Jewish Academy, The Davis Academy, The Epstein School and Torah Day School of Atlanta.

WHAT: A grant covering up to 50% of tuition at participating Cognia or SAIS accredited Jewish day schools for the children of Jewish community professionals who meet specific criteria. The tuition grant is guaranteed for the duration of the child's attendance in elementary or middle school at Atlanta Jewish Academy, The Davis Academy, The Epstein School or Torah Day School of Atlanta.

These grants are funded by members of the Atlanta Jewish community with appreciation and gratitude for the many contributions these professionals make. Each school is allocated a pool of funds that is distributed per capita to eligible students.

WHO: Jewish community professionals working full-time (32+ hours per week) at eligible Jewish non-profits in Atlanta.

Please click here for eligibility criteria.

WHEN: The JCP Day School Tuition Grant will launch across all grades in the 2024-2025 school year. The Grant will also be available for eligible students entering Kindergarten, 1st, 5th, and 6th grades at participating schools in Fall 2025 and Fall 2026.

Once a student begins receiving the Grant, they are guaranteed to receive it for the duration of their enrollment in elementary or middle school, whichever school division they were enrolled when they began receiving the JCP Grant.

CLICK HERE to learn more about eligibility criteria and other frequently asked questions.

