

Local & National Organization/Program	Highlights
18 Doors	18Doors empowers people in interfaith relationships— individuals, couples, families and their children—to engage in Jewish life and make Jewish choices, and encourages Jewish communities to welcome them.
Adamah	Adamah is the largest Jewish environmental organization in North America. Our mission is to cultivate vibrant Jewish life in deep connection with the earth. We believe in the deep connection between people & planet, adam & adamah.
AgeWell Atlanta	AgeWell Atlanta is a coordinated, central solution that links older adults, their family members, friends, and caregivers to community resources for aging well in Jewish Cincinnati.
Atlanta Jewish Academy (AJA)	Atlanta Jewish Academy is a college preparatory, co-educational, Early Childhood - 12th Grade, independent Jewish Day School, guided by modern orthodox values and principles. We embody the ideals of community, tradition, individual development, and educational innovation. Atlanta Jewish Academy develops the whole person for college and life by fostering a love of Torah, Israel and all Jewish people through an excellent General and Judaic education within an inclusive, nurturing community.
Atlanta Jewish Committee	American Jewish Committee (AJC) believes in ensuring the well-being of the Jewish people and defending democratic values for all. As the Atlanta office of AJC, we connect our community to AJC's global advocacy work. Our local access to diplomats, elected officials, and ethnic and religious leaders advances AJC's broader global priorities: combating antisemitism, promoting Israel's place in the world, and promoting pluralism and democratic values.
Atlanta Jewish Film Festival	Atlanta Jewish Film Festival's mission is to inspire diverse communities to new levels of social and cultural understanding by showcasing entertaining and thought-provoking Jewish film. Since 2000, the Atlanta Jewish Film Festival (AJFF) has been an annual showcase of international cinema that explores themes of identity, history, and culture.
Atlanta Kosher BBQ Festival	The Atlanta Kosher BBQ Festival is run by the Hebrew Order of David International. We are a charitable Jewish men's organization dedicated to brotherhood, community service and raising funds for charitable organizations. The Festival draws about 4500 members of the greater Atlanta community every year.
Backpack Buddies	Backpack Buddies mission is to provide weekend meals to food-insecure children in metro Atlanta to enhance their mental and physical health as well as their ability to learn. With the support of hundreds of volunteers at 37 churches, synagogues, senior centers, and other community agencies in metro Atlanta, Backpack Buddies feeds 2,500 children each weekend across 50 schools.

Bagel Rescue	Bagel Rescue is a non-profit organization supporting hunger relief in the Atlanta metro area. We connect restaurants with excess food to neighbors in need. Through donations from local bakeries, volunteers deliver bagels to food pantries and shelters.
Black and Jewish Leaders of Tomorrow	Black and Jewish Leaders of Tomorrow fosters collaboration, understanding, and empowerment between Black and Jewish college students by creating a supportive and inclusive community where they can engage in meaningful dialogue, learn from each other's experiences, and work together to address antisemitism, racism, and bigotry on campus and beyond.
The Breman	The Breman Museum provides connection to Jewish history, arts, and culture as well as holocaust education for the general community.
Camp Judaea	Established in 1961, Camp Judaea is a small, Jewish, Israel-centered summer camp community for children ages 7-15 located in Hendersonville, NC. Located on 158 acres in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina, our setting inspires campers to embrace nature, take positive risks and become more independent.
Creating Connected Communities	Creating Connected Communities (CCC) mission is to provide life-enhancing programs for children experiencing hardship by empowering teens to become engaged community leaders and volunteers.
Davis Academy	The Davis Academy (lower and middle school) educates a generation of confident and compassionate leaders, who embrace Jewish values, are empowered by academic excellence, and are engaged with the world around us. The Davis Academy is recognized as the largest Reform Jewish Day School in the country.
Epstein School	The Epstein School is Jewish day school located in Sandy Springs, GA that is led by specialized STEAM and Hebrew language programs. Epstein offers integrated, dual-language learning that cultivates lifelong skills, inspires Jewish identity, and nurtures curiosity, critical thinking and creativity.
Gather Grants	Gather Grants unlock the possibilities of Jewish connection in Atlanta. With Gather Grants, any Jewish-identifying individual, couple, friend group, or family in Atlanta can receive a $180 grant to create a memorable and personal Jewish experience.
Hillels of Georgia	Hillels of Georgia , a regional Hillel system, serves as an umbrella organization partnering with college campuses to provide thousands of Jewish students with their Jewish home away from home. Our mission is to create vibrant Jewish life on every campus in Georgia. We do so by providing meaningful Jewish experiences to thousands of students on campuses across Georgia.
Holocaust Survivor Support Fund	The Holocaust Survivor Support Fund provides funding to support needs not covered by the claims conference for Holocaust survivors.

In the City Camp	In the City Camps is a Jewish day camp with an overnight camp feel—creates lifelong friendships, nurtures personal growth, and inspires a meaningful connection to the Jewish community and Israel. Serving children from Rising Pre-K through 9th grade, our enriching summer program is more than just a camp—it's a journey of self-discovery within the supportive framework of Jewish culture and traditions. Our mission is to inspire independence, foster lasting friendships, and deepen connections with Jewish heritage and Israel.
Israeli-American Council (IAC)	The mission of the Israeli-American Council (IAC) is to build an engaged and united Israeli-American community that strengthens the Israeli and Jewish identity of our next generation, the American Jewish community, and the bond between the peoples of the United States and the State of Israel. Over half a million Israeli-Americans live in the United States today. As a vital component of American society, they play a major role in social activism, academia, culture, and innovation. The Israeli-American Council (IAC) is the largest Israeli-American organization in the United States, serving this vibrant sector of the Jewish American community.
Jewish Abilities Alliance	Jewish Abilities Alliance (JAA) works collaboratively with Jewish community organizations to foster a Jewish community that is inclusive of people with disabilities.
Jewish Camp Initiative	Federation's Jewish Camp Initiative incentivize families to make a Jewish decision about camping for their children by making overnight Jewish summer camp accessible to more of Atlanta's children. The initiative provides needs-based scholarships and One Happy Camper grants to first and second year campers, assists families in finding the right camp for their future camper, and works closely with our regional camps to elevate Jewish camping throughout metro Atlanta.
Jewish Communal Professional Grant (JCP)	Through the Jewish Communal Professionals Grant, Jewish community professionals working at eligible Jewish non-profits in Atlanta may receive up to 50% off tuition at a participating Jewish day school.
Jewish Community Relations Council	Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC) convenes a common table where members of the Jewish community of Atlanta and other Jewish constituencies can convene and discuss issues which affect our community, Israel, and the Jewish people internationally, nationally, and locally. They provide advocacy for and support positions on issues, with a conscientious respect for all members of our community.

Jewish Education Collaborative	The Jewish Education Collaborative works to advance compelling part-time Jewish education to learn how to engage more children and families in meaningful Jewish learning, explore new models that respond to the needs of modern families, and make Atlanta a thrilling model for collaboration and innovation in Jewish education. Four main approaches to this work include: Strengthening collaboration, investing in talent, exploring innovation, and changing perceptions.
Jewish Education Loan Fund	Jewish Education Loan Fund (JELF) provides interest free loans to help Jewish undergrad, grad and vocational students reach their academic goals.
Jewish Family & Career Services of Atlanta	Jewish Family & Career Services of Atlanta (JF&CS) offers programs and resources to transform lives. Since 1891, we've helped individuals and families of all faiths live to their full potential. JF&CS provides services for aging and older adults, career counseling, dentistry, mental health, intellectual and developmental disabilities, and need-based support services.
Jewish Fertility Foundation	The Jewish Fertility Foundation (JFF) provides financial assistance, educational awareness, and emotional support to Atlanta Jews who have medical infertility. 1 in 6 Jewish couples experience infertility and JFF helps them feel supported through this journey. Two new client trends are 1) an increase in the number of single moms by choice and 2) an increase in multi-faith couples utilizing our emotional support services and receiving JFF Fertility Grants. By supporting clients, emotionally and financially throughout their fertility journey, JFF is able to continue the important work of building a vibrant Jewish community.
Jewish HomeLife	Jewish HomeLife supports the journey of aging through health and daily living solutions, guided by Jewish values. Jewish HomeLife is a non-profit network of nine at-home care services and residential communities and that supports every stage of the aging journey. Jewish HomeLife includes The William Breman Jewish Home, Aviv Rehabilitation Center, Berman Commons, The Cohen Home, The Zaban Tower, The Jewish Tower, The One Group, JHL Medical Services and Weinstein Hospice.
Jewish Interest Free Loans of Atlanta	Jewish Interest Free Loans of Atlanta (JIFLA) creates opportunity and financial stability for Jewish individuals and families in Georgia via interest-free loans and financial education.
Jewish Kids Groups	In 2012, Jewish Kids Groups piloted an independent Jewish education model designed to make Hebrew school FUN and to reach families who were not being served in the Jewish community. JKG started with just six children and has grown to over 250 at four locations. Programs are designed for all types of Jewish families, including those from interfaith and unaffiliated backgrounds. The Jewish educational backgrounds of our students are diverse, and our teachers are trained to engage all students, making JKG a place children look forward to learning, making friends, and building Jewish identity.
Jewish Student Union	Serving 22 public high schools, Jewish Student Union (JSU) facilitates regular club meetings during the lunch hour, before or after school. Programs include speakers from a variety of Jewish organizations, discussions on timely topics of interest to the participants and interactive activities. In addition JSU sponsors activities outside of school including retreats, citywide holiday parties, community service projects, ski trips, Friday night dinners, and an Israel trip.

JScreen	JScreen is a national non-profit offering at-home comprehensive and affordable genetic testing and counseling. JScreen believes that a combination of education, access to state-of-the-art testing technology, and personalized support by qualified medical professionals are key to preventing devastating genetic diseases.
JumpSpark	JumpSpark , as a part of the Jewish Teen Education and Engagement Funder Collaborative and Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta, is an unprecedented collaboration to develop, nurture and scale new approaches to teen engagement. JumpSpark works in Atlanta to reverse the trend of teens opting out of Jewish life in their high school years. JumpSpark connects and collaborates with organizations and individuals serving Jewish teens in Atlanta to enhance the landscape and infrastructure to better engage teens and create meaningful connections to Jewish life, culture and wisdom. This is accomplished through strategic investment in existing programs, support of new and innovative ideas, and thinking creatively to meet the needs of teens, their parents, and the Jewish educators and professionals serving them.
L'dor V'dor Judaica	L'dor V'dor Judaica saves Judaica from thrift shops, estate sales, yard sales and the trash In order to both give It another life and providing It to Jews seeking out these Items. By rehoming Judaica, we not only are able to give It a new life, but also bring the joy and light that using and having Judaica brings Into our lives.
M²	M² helps educators and organizations design compelling educational experiences that help their learners find meaning and relevance in Jewish life. M ² 's mission is to promote a proud and inspired community of Jewish educators who enable their learners to find meaning and relevance in Jewish life.
Ma'alot	Ma'alot is a spiritual community transforming lives through music, nature & Jewish wisdom. We gather to learn, to sing, to hike, to eat, and to journey through holy moments in radical fresh ways that touch our souls and cultivate communal belonging.
Museum of History and Holocaust Education at Kennesaw State University	The Museum of History and Holocaust Education at Kennesaw State University presents public events, exhibits, educational resources and training rooted in World War II and the Holocaust and the generational shifts that relate to those events. The MHHE illuminates the role that individuals play in history and the effects of history on individuals.
MACoM (Metro Atlanta Community Mikvah)	Metro Atlanta Community Mikvah (MACoM) is to provide a safe, sensitive, welcoming, halachic and aesthetically beautiful environment for Jewish ritual immersion and conversion, allowing for ongoing fulfillment of spirituality, Torah awareness, healing and wellness.
Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta (MJCCA)	The Marcus JCC offers exceptional programs and essential services, but we are so much more than a fitness center, camp, or preschool; we connect and inspire our community in profound ways throughout every stage of life. The Marcus JCC has earned our reputation for innovation, quality, and effectiveness in a diverse range of programs that connect people and bring out the best in them. Our exceptional preschools, award-winning camps, outstanding cultural events, and invigorating sports and fitness programs engage and entertain people of all ages and backgrounds. The MJCCA strengthens the quality of life in Atlanta and is recognized as one of the most highly regarded Jewish Community Centers in the nation.

Moishe House	Moishe House provides vibrant Jewish community for young adults by supporting leaders in their 20s as they create meaningful home-based Jewish experiences for themselves and their peers. Each of the three Moishe House communities in Atlanta are uniquely shaped by its group of residents. Moishe House provides a partial rent subsidy, programming budget, educational resources and training.
National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW)	The National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) is a grassroots organization of volunteers and advocates who turn progressive ideals into action. Inspired by Jewish values, NCJW strives for social justice by improving the quality of life for women, children, and families and by safeguarding individual rights and freedoms. It is the oldest Jewish feminist civil rights organization working for equity and justice for women, children, and families in the United States and Israel and has 210,000 grassroots advocates and 50 local sections.
Neranenah (formerly the Atlanta Jewish Music Festival)	Neranenah entertains and connects diverse audiences through the exploration of Jewish contributions to music and the performing arts, celebrating its intersections with other cultures and communities. Neranenah, formerly the Atlanta Jewish Music Festival, is a non-profit cultural event series with roots in Jewish culture and musical traditions.
Next Gen	As the young adult division of the Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta, Next Gen is on a mission to inspire young adults, ages 22-40, in all stages of life. NextGen builds the future of our Jewish Community by getting young adults involved, engaged, and inspired by focusing on community building, leadership development, individual identity, and philanthropy.
Oak Leaf Cooperative School	Oak Leaf Cooperative School provides developmentally appropriate, play-based early childhood education that promotes respect for people and nature, grounded in Jewish values. They use outdoor learning to foster curiosity, compassion, empathy, cultural awareness, creative problem-solving, and environmental responsibility in young children. Oak Leaf Cooperative builds community by involving parents and teachers in all aspects of program operations.

OneTable	OneTable empowers people who don't yet have a consistent Shabbat dinner practice to build one that feels authentic, sustainable, and valuable. One Table encourages participants to envision what their gathering might be and works alongside them to provide the support needed. OneTable's primary goal is for emerging adults to become the producers of their own experiences, and for Shabbat dinner to become a platform for community building. One Table provides "nourishment credits" for their Shabbat dinner hosts.
PJ Library	PJ Library is a national program of the Harold Grinspoon Foundation that sends Jewish children a free, age-appropriate Jewish themed book each month. With support from Federation, PJ Library mails books to more than 5,500 families in metro Atlanta. In addition, team of 5 PJ Library connectors plan programs for PJ Library families in neighborhoods across Atlanta.
Ramah Darom	Ramah Darom brings people of all ages together for exceptional experiences in Jewish living and learning on our 185-acre North Georgia mountain campus. Ramah Darom programs – including summer camp, family camps and year-round experiential retreats – inspire a lifelong love of Jewish values, tradition and community.
Repair the World	As a Jewish service movement, Repair the World mobilize young adults to serve and learn, partner with Jewish organizations and local service non-profits to get their communities volunteering, and inspire people to take action for social change through digital engagement. Today, inspired by our values, we activate a national service movement, mobilizing partners and tens of thousands of Jewish young adults and their communities to serve alongside our neighbors.
Sojourn (Southern Jewish Resource Network)	The Southern Jewish Resource Network for Gender and Sexual Diversity (SOJOURN) promotes increased understanding, acceptance, and inclusion of individuals across the entire spectrum of gender and sexual orientation in the Southeast through education, outreach, and advocacy, inspired by Jewish and universal ethics and ideals.
Temima High School for Girls	Temima, The Richard & Jean Katz High School for Girls, a Bais Yaakov school under the auspices of Torah Umesorah, is a college/seminary preparatory school serving grades 9-12. The Hebrew word "Temima" indicates wholeness or completeness.
Tikkun Olam Makers (TOM)	Tikkun Olam Makers (TOM) is a global movement of communities that creates and disseminates affordable solutions to neglected challenges of people living with disabilities, the elderly and the poor. In partnership with Hillel, TOM hosts makeathons on college campuses each year.

Trybal Gatherings	Trybal Gatherings is the leading provider of Jewish camp experiences for young adults and their friends. Set in picturesque landscapes across North America, our Gatherings are designed to let you plug into a dynamic community during an unforgettable weekend escape. Trybal has hosted day and overnight camps for Jewish young adults in Georgia.
Torah Day School	Torah Day School of Atlanta is an independent private day school serving close to three hundred and fifty students kindergarten through eighth grade. Offering a rigorous academic program both in Judaic and general studies, TDSA's goal is to infuse its students with a love of learning and a deep-seated connection with their Torah heritage. Our faculty and administrators seek to teach and develop each child academically, socially, physically and spiritually, in an emotionally safe and nurturing environment.
Tzofim	Tzofim of North America is a youth movement for Jewish teens that originated in Israel. Tzofim offers youth throughout the United States a unique opportunity to participate in Israel Scouts programs and activities. This program, conducted in Hebrew, helps youth and teens develop physically, intellectually, and socially, through age-specific activities including games, discussions, projects, camping trips, ceremonies, holiday celebrations, music, sport, and fun!
URJ Camp Coleman	Camp Coleman , a program of the Union for Reform Judaism, serves campers from the Southeast United States from Tennessee and the Carolinas through Georgia and Florida. Our mission is to inspire campers and staff to be caring, committed, and connected to the Jewish community through an extraordinary camp experience.
Weber School	The Weber School prepares its students for success in college and in life, inspiring them to be knowledgeable, thinking, responsible Jewish adults, by weaving together The pursuit of academic excellence; a commitment to Jewish values, the Jewish people and Israel; and a responsibility to serve our community and improve our world.

Global Organization/Program	Highlights
The Backstory Group	The Backstory Group's mission is to help bring perceptions of Israel more in line with its dynamic reality, through the engagement of students and professionals in the cultural and entertainment arenas. The Backstory Group brings media producers, screenwriters, film music composers, and other creators to Israel with the intention of building collaborative efforts with their Israeli counterparts
Birthright Israel	Birthright Israel offers the gift of a life-changing trip to Israel to young Jewish adults between the ages of 18 and 26 — and in doing so, transform the Jewish future. Founded in 1999 by a remarkable group of committed Jewish philanthropists, Birthright Israel Foundation has given this gift to more than 850,000 young Jewish adults. Atlanta sends nearly 80 participants each year accompanied by a local staff member who helps foster the connection to Israel and the local Jewish community after the participants return home. Federation also provides funding for Onward Israel , offers opportunities for college students to take part in internships, academic study and fellowships – providing a global, cross-cultural experience in Israel and direct contact with Israeli peers. Onward programs range in duration from six to ten weeks.
Hand in Hand	Hand in Hand's mission is to build partnership and equality between Jewish and Arab citizens of Israel through our growing network of integrated Jewish-Arab schools and communities throughout the country. Starting with only 50 children in 1998, Hand in Hand now has six campuses and thousands of Jewish and Arab students. As Israel's fastest-growing, integrated social movement, our work reaches thousands of people every day, proving that we can live together as Jews and Arabs, Israelis and Palestinians.
Honeymoon Israel	Honeymoon Israel provides immersive trips to Israel for cohorts of couples that have at least one Jewish partner, early in their committed relationship. HMI creates communities of couples who are building families with deep and meaningful connections to Jewish life and the Jewish people. The goal is to make them feel welcome in the Jewish community and to inspire them to incorporate Jewish values into their lives.
ImpactIsrael/Yemin Orde	ImpactIsrael partners with Yemin Orde Youth Village and to turn Israel's most vulnerable youth into upstanding individuals through the power of education.

Jewish Agency for Israel (JAFI)	Jewish Agency for Israel (JAFI), the largest Jewish nonprofit organization in the world's mission is to "ensure that every Jewish person feels an unbreakable bond to one another and to Israel no matter where they live in the world, so that they can continue to play their critical role in our ongoing Jewish story." Funds sent to JAFI also support the programs of the Atlanta partnership region in Yokneam and Megiido. For over 25 years, the Federations of Atlanta and St. Louis have supported programs in the partnership region to promote community development, develop meaningful relationships between Israel and the Diaspora, and help marginal population groups with basic needs.
Joint Distribution Committee (JDC)	Joint Distribution Committee (JDC or The Joint) lifts lives and strengthens communities in 70 countries. JDC rescues Jews in danger, provides aid to vulnerable Jews, develops innovative solutions to Israel's most complex social challenges, cultivates a Jewish future, and leads the Jewish community's response to crisis. In the former Soviet Union (FSU), Federation funds provide services to impoverished elderly, helping the most vulnerable elderly Jews to live in dignity and to meet their most basic needs – such as material support for food and medicine, homecare, emergency aid in cases of unexpected needs (e.g., urgent surgery), and socialization programs to mitigate social isolation and loneliness. In addition, Federation supports Jewish Renewal programs, such as Active Jewish Teens (AJT) in the FSU. AJT is a community and Jewish identity-building platform for 12-17-year olds and hosts a range of social, cultural, and leadership building activities, together with Shabbat and holiday celebrations. It seeks to build a group of Jewish youth who are connected to their Judaism and take responsibility for their communities.

Lotem	Lotem (JNF partner organization) offers accessible hikes and educational nature activities around the country to children and adults with special needs. These include individuals with visual and hearing impairments, physical, intellectual and emotional challenges and children on the autism spectrum. They also include at risk youth and mothers and children residing in shelters for victims of domestic violence. With one center on an ecological farm in the picturesque Emek HaShalom (Valley of Peace) Nature Park near Yokneam and one in Jerusalem, LOTEM enables more than 30,000 participants to take part in nature activities every year.
Momentum/Jewish Women's Connection Atlanta	Jewish Women's Connection Atlanta creates and builds a spiritual community that connects women through friendship, learning and Jewish values and transforms and impacts them, their families and the Atlanta Jewish community. Federation supports trips to Israel, each year around 80 Atlanta Jewish moms participate the trip. The Israel trip is not an end in itself; JWC Atlanta programs and classes throughout the year offer women the connection and inspiration that the trip provides.
Ohel Menashe	Ohel Menashe is the only Egalitarian Jewish community in Yokneam, giving voice and opportunity to practice Judaism in a pluralistic manner. The community is affiliated with the Masorti movement in Israel. Ohel Menashe offers religious services, classes and Bnai Mizvah programs.
OpenDor Media	OpenDor Media is a nonprofit media organization that produces and globally distributes educational videos and award-winning feature-length documentary films on the subjects of Judaism, the Jewish people and Israel.

Schoenbaum Shinshinim	The Shinshinim are young Israelis who spend a gap year in our community before serving in the army, teaching about modern Israel with a light, accessible, friendly touch. They bring their love of Israel into our Jewish day school and supplementary school classes through art, song, dance, and holiday observances. They work at our Jewish preschools, day camps, overnight camps, youth groups, and community organizations.
TALMA: The Israel Program for Excellence in English	TALMA's mission is to address education inequity by providing low-income Israeli students with experiential learning of English language. TALMA enables personal and professional growth of Israeli and international teachers and empowers international educators to deepen their connection with Israel.
Israel Parasport Center (formerly the Israel Sport Center for the Disabled)	The Israel ParaSport Center is a world-renowned athletic rehabilitation center in Israel that transforms lives. Founded more than 60 years ago, The Center's mission to empower people with disabilities through sports has helped thousands of Israelis lead fulfilling, successful lives. The Israel ParaSport Center currently serves more than 2,700 children and adults with disabilities annually through both its holistic rehabilitative and competitive parasport programs.
World Union for Progressive Judaism	World Union for Progressive Judaism (WUPJ) was founded in 1926 and represents 1.8 million Reform, Progressive, and Liberal Jews across six continents, 50 countries and 1,200 communities. WUPJ promotes contemporary expressions of Jewish identity wherever Jews choose to live. Federation supports the Belarus branch which focuses on engagement of youth and young adults to create meaningful Jewish opportunities for entire families and communities. Federation funds summer camps, Bar/Bat Mitzvah and early childhood education programs.

Youth Renewal Fund

Youth Renewal Fund provides support for Darca schools, whose mission is to strengthen the underserved communities in Israel's periphery by creating a groundbreaking enriched and efficient education system. We serve all sectors of the Israeli population regardless of their religion or political affiliations. In Darca schools, students gain access to an educational experience comparable to or surpassing that available in the wealthiest communities, thus bridging the gap in Israeli society.