

Mindy Selig Bio

Mindy Selig, Principal and Co-CEO, is the fourth generation of the Selig family to lead the company. Mindy's career experience has focused on curating experiential, urban mixed-use developments focused primarily on community. To date, one of her proudest accomplishments is The Works, an 80-acre mixed use, re-adaptive project which is the vision of her late brother, Scott Selig.

In addition to Real Estate, she is passionate about her involvement in community organizations like Rotary, The Buckhead Coalition and Camp Sunshine. She is currently President of the American Jewish Committee and co-chair of The Temple's capital campaign. Additionally, she sits on the boards of The Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta and the Carter Center. In 2022, she was named Atlanta Magazine's "Woman of Influence" and in 2025 she was named to the Atlanta Business Chronicle's Women of Influence list. She is a 2024 alumni of Leadership Atlanta. Mindy's greatest love is her family and two Bernedoodles!
